HOLIDAY TRADE

In Maysville Was of Record Breaking Proportions-Merchants Well Pleased With Results

Any person who noticed the thousands of out-of-town people in Maysville last week wouldn't wonder that the 1908 holiday business of Maysville merchants was of the record hardly an exception, were amazed and de lighted with Christmas results.

Christmas Eve there must have been fully 2,000 vehicles on the streets of Maysville and nearly every street was lined with solid rows of unhitched buggies and other conveyances me greater pride, because which brought the vast crowd from the country nothing would give me and neighboring towns to do their holiday buying in our hustling city.

> More than a thousand people came in Thursthe rush at the stores Christmas Eve was of the crushing variety.

To gather a general expression of our mer chants on holiday trade results, a representa Saturday and inquired of each firm: "How was your Christmas trade?"

Following were the replies:

D. Hechinger & Co., clothing, etc.: "Our trade shows an increase of over 25% over las year and our business is most gratifying."

Merz Bros., drygoods, etc.: "The Bee Hive's Christmas business was very satisfactory and totals a handsome increase over past records We sold 100 copies of John Fox's new book our purchase. We believe in advertisiting."

Hunt's, drygoods, etc.. "Results very pleas ing, especially our sales of high quality goods, Ohio and Kentucky. Our business shows sub-

S. Straus, New York Store, drygoods, etc.: "Our holiday trade Saturday before Christmas and Christmas Eve exceeded any of our previous sales here. I figure out that my holiday trade will show an increase of 38% over last year. Am I satisfied?"

J. Wesley Lee, clothing, etc.: "Our trade was O. K. and very pleasing, considering conditions. We have faith in Maysville and her

George H. Frank, clothing, etc.: "My holiday business was simply immense and am greatly pleased at the manner the public responded to my bargains."

R. L. Hoeflich, drygoods, etc.: no room for any kick. One of the best trades I ever had."

Major W. H. Means, Manager Dan Cohen's Shoe Store: "Our shoe trade was satisfactory, taking into consideration that we have had unseasonable weather to sell footwear. People have to have shoes and we sell lots of 'em even in good weather."

Barkley's Shoe Store: "Our Christmas trade was splendid," said Mr. Harry Barkley, "and we are pleased to note that the buyers are securing a higher quality of footwear. No complaint."

W. B. Pecor's Shoe Store: "My footwear trade was excellent and fully up to past

J. James Wood & Son, drugs: "Fine, and am pleased to say that our trade was the best in years," said Mr. Jamie B. Wood.

J. C. Pecor, drugs: "Was taxed to handle the trade, while postal station business broke all previous records."

Thomas J. Chenoweth, drugs: "Our Christmas business was up to the usual proportions; sales were quite satisfying."

Sallie Wood's drugstore: "Biggest trade for years and sales show gratifying increase." Mike Brown, harness and farmers' supplies, 'The Square Deal Man" said: "We had the biggest business in past three years and pros-Princess Rink, too, drew the crowds and everybody happy."

M. F. Williams, Masonic . Temple drugstore: thing that we can use. 'My holiday trade was the largest I ever enjoyed and we had all we could do."

R. B. Lovel, groceries: "I had a very satisfactory trade and couldn't supply the demand for oysters. Sold three times the oysters I sold last Christmas."

J. C. Cablish & Bro., groceries: "We en joyed a very large trade, especially in fruits, and it taxed us to deliver purchases."

G. W. Geisel, groceries: "Our holiday business was fully up to expectations and past records and have no complaint to register."

P. J. Murpby, jewelry and silverware: "Christmas business very satisfactory." Dan Perrine, jewelry and silverware: "Business was good. Retter than last year."

The production was quite elaborately staged and prettily rendered, except the singing of pretty Miss Blank, the leading lady, whose voice seemed to have been hopelessly swallowed, if you will permit us to so remark. The songs were the hit of the show and were amusing and funny except—and we hope we vill never hear the like of that here again.

Mr. W. H. Conley, as "The Royal Chef," was the best seen in Maysville for years and his inimitable pertrayal of the leading role was satisfyingly amusing.

The character impersonations of Miss Julia Curtis and her singing of "O'Reilly" and other numbers, and her cute manner, won the audience instanter. She's the real goods.

Many of the girls were pretty and the costumes, etc., quite pleasing, though some of " Chef's bon mots were nearly the limit.

GOES TO CHICAGO

Mr. Claude H. Tolle Promoted in Management of Knox Store

Youngstown (Ohio) Vindicator.

C. H. Tolle, local manager of the S. H. Knox & Co.'s five and ten-cent store, will on Sunday depart for Chicago, there to take managerial charge of the Company's store in State street. This the largest store the Company owns and Mr. Tolle's selection to manage it is a flattering recognition of his splendid ability.

Mr. Tolle came to this city from New York a little more than a year ago. Under his management the local store has been more successful than at any previous time.

the admiration and friendship of a large number of the business and professional men of the city. Yesterday when it became known that he was about to leave the city a number of these gentlemen clubbed together for the purpose of presenting him with a token of their friendship and esteem. Later on Mr. Tolle was summoned to the Hotel Salow, where he was presented a beautiful loving cup. The presentation speech was made by Attorney Harry Ernest in the presence of a score or more of Mr. Tolle's friends and admirers. He responded appropriately, after which an informal smoker and social hour was most enjoyably spent.

During his short residence in this city Mr. Tolle has proved himself to be one of its most enthusiastic boosters. He took a prominent part in making Home Week the big success it proved to be and was one of the most prominent of the promoters of the bench show given in this city, he being a great fancier of dogs. It has not yet been announced who will succeed Mr. Tolle as Manager of the Knox store.

DECIDE YOURSELF.

The Opportunity is Here, Backed by Maysville Testimony.

Don't take our word for it. Don't depend on a stranger's statement. Read Maysville indorsement. Read the statements of Maysville citizens. And decide for yourself. Here is one case of it: J. M. Lloyd, farmer, Rural Fre No. 5, Maysville, Ky., says: "I am only too pleased ence with Doan's Kidner
